Who I was

Okay, I realize that the subject of some of my poems is becoming rather redundant, but it'll change soon.

Who I was

By AniSky

My life changed so much that night,
> When I crossed the construction site,
 Now my life is full of fear,
> The end, or worse, may well be near.

The person who I used to be,
> Really is no longer me.
 It doesn't seem as if she was real,
> Who she was, the emotions she'd feel.

Am I her, or am I not?
> The girl-- the things she'd do a lot.
 She was always brave, always bold,
> But when had I turned so stone cold?

But I can't dwell on that small thought,
> Or on that memory, I'll be caught.
 I can't go back and be that child,
> For my heart has turned cold and wild.

End
file.
